

- The order of Holy Week
 - What has been called "_____ " begins Holy Week
 - Then on Thursday, some Christian traditions celebrate what is called _____, celebrating what has come to be called the Last Supper
 - On Friday, we remember _____, remembered in Christian tradition as "Good Friday"
 - Then Sunday is the central celebration and a central doctrine of Christianity, we remember _____ of Jesus Christ, what we have come to call Easter.
- So far we've seen that God is _____.
- As a result of sin, humanity is not only _____, but we are also _____.
- Jesus is the _____ in the Gospel.

WHAT ARE THE IMPLICATIONS?

- When we are a new creation, we have been changed from _____ to _____
- Positionally, if we are "in Christ" we stand _____ and _____ before God the Father